

Account Number - Unique number used to identify different clients

Address - the location of the customer

Admin Account - an account that has managerial permissions

Android Application - the software the Pickers and Stockers use to do Warehouse Operations

Bulk - section of inventory that is part of storage

Bulk Stock - quantity of a product's stock in bulk

Cloud Database - the central database that will be located in the cloud using cloud computing

Cloud Computing - delivery of computing services over the internet

Customer - the user that is placing the order

Customer Account - account that contains the user, their address, their order, and order history

Desktop Application - the software that is used by the managers to manage shipments, orders, and other employees

Employee - any user that works for the warehouse

Employee Account - account that contains an employees information as well as their job

Inventory - the quantity of each product stored in the warehouse

Inventory History - a list that contains the inventory quantity at times specified by the managers

Master Account List - the list in a central database that contains all the accounts

Manager - an Employee that oversees the creation of pallets and routes and inventory management

Order - an item that contains a list of products to be ship to a certain address

Order List - a list that contains all the orders currently being processed

Order Priority - the rating of the importance of an order

Order Processed List - a list that contains all the orders that have been processed

Picker - an Employee whose job is to pick products to be sent out on the routes.

Product - an item that can be ordered from the warehouse

Product List - a list of all possible Products that can be ordered

Productivity - work done per hour as specified by management

Productivity List - a list that contains all the productivity values of every employee

Shipment - a list of Address with orders that a single truck will deliver to Palletize - arranging the products that have been ordered on pallets so that they fit on a given route.

Palletization Recommendation - a recommendation of how orders should be palletized for a route

Route List - List of tomorrow's shipments

Shelf - section of inventory that orders can select from

Shelf Stock - quantity of a product's stock on shelves

Shipment - a group of palletized products to send on a route

Stock Priority Queue - a queue of products that need to be restocked before products

Stocker - an Employee whose job is to replenish emptied shelf locations and put away incoming inventory.

Warehouse Operations - receiving orders, filling orders, creating shipments, and restocking products

Website - what the Customers use to place their orders and create the Customer Account